

50 Something Dates with 17 Mr. Wrongs represents an anthology of factual experiences and lessons from meâ€™ a single female graduate level professional, who has decided to be unwavering in my standards in the area of romance. The primary purpose of the book is catharsis, using poetic justice and humor with the awareness that my experiences are not isolated from other females. The common thread that stitched the fabric that would eventually become 50 Something Dates with 17 Mr. Wrongs was: â€œmen just donâ€™t get it and women need to be more assertive in matters of the heart.â€• The author does not present to be a dating expert nor is the book intended to be used as a Bible of sorts for dating, instead, it is an honest interpretation of dating mishaps, â€œraw and untainted by efforts to please everyone and offend no one.â€• Consequently, it is for: â€œThe girls who have been burned, broken and rejected in the noble efforts of taking risks and being hopeless romantics and; the men who just didnt get it...â€•
