

La Carta a la senora Cristina de Lorena, gran duquesa de Toscana (titulo original: Lettera a Madama Cristina di Lorena granduchessa di Toscana) es un carta escrita por el astronomico, cientifico e intelectual Renacentista Galileo Galilei, en la que trata el problema de la religion y la ciencia. Por ello mismo se trata de un material sobre critica textual, con valor literario e incluso teologico (aunque no para la epoca en que se redacto). La misma esta dirigida a uno de los protectores de Galileo, la duquesa Cristina de Lorena, a cuyo ducado pertenecia Pisa, de donde era oriundo el propio Galileo. En estas cartas, Galileo Galilei hace una defensa ante las acusaciones imputadas por quienes segun el no actuan conforme a la verdad de fe y la ciencia, sino bajo los conceptos de heregia la ceguera de la subjetividad y vanos argumentos y que ponen en tela de juicio tanto su fe como su reputacion, cerrandose a la verdad de los nuevos acontecimientos, especialmente ante los progresos revelados por la ciencia, la matematica y la astronomia.
