

Ever wondered how Marshall Bruce Mathers III and Curtis James Jackson III rose to stardom? No one expected a skinny and poor young boy from the projects of Detroit to one day become one of the highest-selling rap artists of all time, but Marshall Mathers, aka Eminem, never lost sight of his dream. Despite an unbelievable amount of odds stacked against him, the aspiring rap artist used his pain and turmoil to pour anger, hurt, and frustration into his rap lyrics. Using his own turbulent life as a blueprint, Eminem rose through the rap charts on the waves of critics who began praising his skilled lyricism and sarcastic sense of humor. Looking at 50 Cent's career, one would hardly expect that the rapper's impressive rise to stardom could have been cut short by an early life of crime and violence. As a musician, an actor, and a businessman, 50 Cent has consistently proven his instincts for choosing successful projects in which to involve himself. However, 50 Cent was actually born into an environment full of poverty and bloodshed and had to fight his way out of a deadly cycle of incarceration and physical confrontation before he truly realized his full potential.
