

If your heart skips a beat every time you walk into an airport checkpoint, then this stunning book is for you! Checkpoint to Heaven is a collection of 4 themes that convey insightful, powerful, humorous, and sometimes controversial messages related to the role of Transportation Security Administration (TSA) in this post 9/11 era. Its an eyewitness graphic account of airport checkpoint operations and the social, religious, and political ramifications. It's also a testimony to the great work and challenges facing TSA, its officers, and the constant search for balancing the ever-changing passenger rules in the hope of providing better service. Chapter headings include One God is plenty, Arabs are not created equal, Muslim or American and Screw the SOP
