

Bred in Scotland, Clydesdales are some of the largest and most powerful horses in the world. They're often seen working in teams to pull wagons and plows. These animals are also called gentle giants. Readers will learn much about this breed and see the characteristics that make Clydesdales stand out among horses in the full-color photographs this book provides. Easy-to-follow text makes learning about the many jobs of a Clydesdale, from pulling competitions to TV commercials, assessable to the most reluctant of readers.
