

Katherine Anne Porters Poetry makes available for the first time the complete poetic canon of one of Americas most-celebrated writers. Revered for her award-winning short stories, Porter published just thirty-two poems and poetry translations, although she composed--and subsequently destroyed--hundreds. From fragmentary notes and letters found among Porters papers, Darlene Harbour Unrue has recovered and edited eighteen unpublished poems. It is a significant addition to the Porter canon, the newly found poems join Porters published verse, including the entire text of the now-rare Katherine Anne Porters French Song-Book, to create a unique commentary on the writers life and work.
