

The book Divorce: In the Bible and Remarriage: In the Bible comes from a Jewish perspective. There are many ethics and doctrines that we obtain from scripture and incorporate it into the Church and into Gentile's lives that are turning to Jesus. Marriage, divorce and remarriage are one of those doctrines. Regardless of your past, culture or understanding the Bible doesn't ever allow women to pastor a Church or to lead a marriage. Scripture similarly doesn't give a woman permission to divorce her husband since she is subject to him by God's law (Gen. 3:16). This book portrays old, forgotten fundamental truths..... Impressively well written, organized and presented, Divorce: In the Bible is very highly recommended for all members of the Christian community regardless of their denominational affiliation -- but most especially is it commended to the attention of any Christian contemplating or otherwise faced with the prospect of a divorce - Midwest Book Review. Divorce: In the Bible by Michael Sayen, there is a ton of research and explanation about what the Bible defines as marriage and says about divorce. It is so well researched that it could almost be a Bible commentary book on its own about this specific subject - Readers Favorite Book Review.
